

Message from the President
& CEO, MCB Bank
on International Day of Family Remittances

On behalf of MCB Bank, I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a happy International Day of Family Remittances.

As a financial institution committed to financial inclusion and the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals, we recognize the significance of family remittances in supporting the livelihoods of millions of families worldwide. We understand the challenges that come with sending and receiving remittances, and therefore, work with our international and local partners to continuously make our products and services, such as MCB's Burqraftaar, easy and affordable for our clients.

Our bank is dedicated to reducing the cost of remittances while creating synergies across the remittance networks to facilitate our clients. We believe that by working together with our partners, we can make a difference in the lives of our clients by providing them with access to affordable financial services.

We are proud to be a part of this global effort to promote financial inclusion and support families around the world. We will continue to work hard to ensure our clients have access to the best possible remittance services.

Thank you for entrusting your valuable remittances to the banking channels, which not only bring safety and comfort to your loved ones but also help contribute to the prosperity of the nation.

Shoaib Mumtaz
President & CEO, MCB Bank Limited

